Serial No. 5

Letter no 1410/30-31 dated 4th Sept'30 from the D.C. Tumkur forwarding for sanction T.A. bill of Mr. Shama Sastri, Pleader, Madhugiri who was asked to take steps to file an interpleader Suit re: the box of valuable deposited in Sira Tk. Try. by one Buddu madhavacha.

1) Kind reference is invited to this office Communication no P. 6669 dated 16th April 1931 where in it is specifically stated that the Pltr. B'lore has to be entrusted with the filing of the suit. Contrary to the instructions given Mr. Shamasastry, Pleader Madhugiri has been engaged to take steps to institute the interpleader Suit, and thereby allowed to incur unnecessary expenditure. D.C. Tumkur may perhaps be enquired why the services of the Pltr Bangalore were not availed of. Dft is put up for consd: accordingly.

Sub: for perusal & orders.

2) The D.C does not say that Mr. Shamasastri's services were engaged for filing the Suit. The fee claimed is only for drafting a plaint. ~~The~~ There ~~was~~ is however no reason why even this work should have been entrusted to Mr Sastri or why for this he has to make a journey to Sira. The

3) There appears to be no justification why Mr Shamasastri should make a journey to Sira in order to prepare a draft plaint. He could have got the necessary information by post. He has claimed Rs 11-8-0 for this journey at the rate of 4 annas per mile. I do not think anything more than the actual expenses incurred, which in all probability will equal the usual bus fares, can be passed in this case.

4) For studying the record & drafting the plaint, he claims Rs 15/-. As has been pointed out already there was no need to entrust this work to Mr. Shamasastry, but having done so, his claim has to be allowed. A small sum of 8 annas is claimed on account of postage & reg^n charges & this may be allowed.
